How To Use This Book – Be Encouraged

- Meditate – Reflect on God’s truths.
- Listen – Get quiet and hear God.
- Write – Jot down what comes to mind.
- Pray – Ask God to help you in the process.
- Gratitude – Praise God for His goodness.
- Act – Do given instructions.

This Companion Journal will help you work through these points. It is a useful tool, to encourage you to go deeper in your understanding and make the most of your reading. As you read each book of the series, you will have thoughts that come to mind and you will want to write them down. You want to be able to capture “in the moment” revelations.

You will get insight and clarity on areas that you may not have thought of before, so you want to jot them down for further understanding later. Also, there will be several questions asked of you that will lead you into further study of the topics you have read. Be ready to write.

You do not want to just read, but you want to get understanding about what you are reading. Slow down and hear what God is saying. He has so much for you to know and sometimes it needs to be highlighted for you, in order for you to see it. That is what this Companion Journal is designed to do. Help you dig deeper and allow the process.

Take time to get quiet and go through each section of this journal. Read the questions, write down what comes to mind. Listen for instructions that may come and be ready to do them. Write this down also. You will find that doing this, will help you know that God is present and that He does speak to you.

Take as much time as you need to meditate on each section. No hurry! You want to hear all that God is speaking to you about each topic. This will also help you to sharpen your listening and discernment skills. The more you know you are hearing what God is saying to you, the more confident and bolder you get in doing what you are led to do. Pray and ask God to help you with this.

There is so much more that you can learn about God and how He has created you to live. He wants you free from bondage and the things that try to hinder your progression in His plan for your life. He wants you to journey and participate with Him as He shows you, you. Be grateful that He desires to unfold what He has called you to become.

The Declaration Page after each section, will help you profess God's Word as you read it out loud and declare it over your life. His promises are real and are for you. Believe it!

There are many waiting for you to discover your purpose and for you to manifest it. This happening will be a blessing, not only to you, but those you are called to. Make the further investment to work on the areas God is shining a light on, as you read this series. Do the work needed to break free and walk in wholeness and completeness in Him. Act on all that has been given to you. The return on your investment, is priceless.

Thank you for making the continual decision to not be comfortable with where you are. For wanting to grow and develop in Him. He loves you and has great plans for you! Be encouraged and keep moving forward!

Until next time, let wisdom speak to you today!

"Comfort is the enemy of progress."

- P. T. Barnum

Committed,
Established By A Decision

Write down a few thoughts that stuck out to you as you read.

Pick one main thought from this list that you want to expand on. Why does this one interest you the most? Ask God to give you more understanding on this thought. Write down what comes to mind.

Write down why you think Jesus endured The Cross for you.

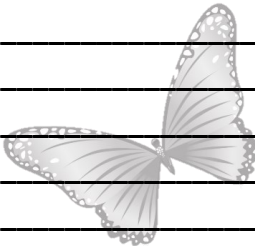

Write down what Luke 22:19-20 (NKJV) (2) means to you. Listen and write down what God may say to you about it.

“And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.” Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My Blood, which is shed for you.”

What does being a committed person mean to you? Give one example. Does this fall in line with what you have read? If not, what is the difference? If so, why?

What examples, at least 3, are given in the Introduction that describe what happens when a decision is made? What other examples can you think of?

Write down Proverbs 23:7. What does this mean to you?

Write down the definition of the word Beginning. Does it make sense to you that God was here before we were, and that He created everything? If so, why and if not, why?

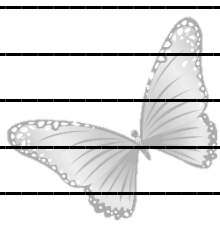

Jesus was equipped to do all He needed to do as He was on the earth. Why is this true from what you have read? What else is God sharing with you about this truth? Did Jesus have a choice in the plans God had?

Does your purpose manifest automatically? What do you have to do to walk in your purpose? What did Jesus have to do?

What thoughts do you have about Jesus' commitment to you?

What does commitment look like to you? Are you a committed person? If so, why? If not, what changes can you make to become a committed person?

Write out John 3:16-17. What does it mean to you?

Why is the condition of the heart an important part of being a committed person?

Why did Jesus have to grow in understanding and knowledge?

What is the purpose of The Bible? Why is the purpose of The Bible important to know? Why is the purpose of a thing, in general, important to know?

Write out Luke 22:42. Can you say the same to God?

What happens when love is in a person's heart? Write down some examples that come to mind.

What does Proverbs 4:7 say about wisdom? Meditate on this.

What can truth do in a person's life, as stated in John 8:31-32? Write down a truth that you now know that has helped you to be free.

Does truth help you to make good decisions? If so, why? If not, why? Ask God to make this clear to you and write down what comes to mind.

Do you believe there is a force for good and a force for evil present in the world? If so, why? If not, why? Find and write down at least 2 scriptures that talk about this.

Write down what John 10:10 says. What does this mean to you?

Why does the enemy try to deceive people? What can be used to combat the enemy's deceptions?

Why is it important to respond to the enemy with The Word of God? How did Jesus handle talking to the enemy? Was it effective? If so, how so?

How is your heart condition? Ask God to show you and write down what comes to mind. What is your commitment level to fulfilling your purpose? Are you all in? If so, why? If not, why?

What 3 things can help you have a more productive and fulfilled life, from page 39? What else do you think about these 3 points?

Do you see The Bible as a life manual? How is The Bible helpful to you? How can it help you be a committed person?

How important is it to receive Jesus as your personal Lord and Savior? What does The Bible have to say about this?

What is the definition of Maturing? Is this needed in order for you to fulfill your purpose? If so, why? If not, why? What does 1 Corinthians 13:11 say about this?

Progression and growth is a part of life. From an infant, one grows to an adult, as an example. Do you feel like you have progressed and grown since you decided to give your life to Jesus? If so, why? If not, why? Ask God to help you in this area and write down what comes to mind.

Ask God to show you areas where you need to grow and develop more in your commitment to fulfilling your purpose. Write down what comes to mind.

Daily Declaration to Being Committed

Father, I declare today is another day that I will grow and develop in You. I choose to do what is necessary for my spiritual growth to happen today. I will continue to eat healthy both spiritually and naturally, as Deuteronomy 8:3 states, because I desire to be strong in You today. I commit all of my ways to You today and I thank You for protecting and directing my path. I'm maturing in Your Word today, therefore, I am developing my potential and my purpose is being fulfilled and many are blessed today.

In Jesus Name, Amen!
